WITH SYMPATHY:

John Lindahl, a previous villager, passed away this month (June '06) after complications from a recent stroke; he was 98. John and Ann Lindahl lived in the village after the war from the late '40's to 1972 with their children Joann, Anita, Peter and Eric. He was an architect, and built a home here for his family which the Scott family now reside in. Mr. Lindahl was most well known for the Bellevue Congregational Church he designed. After leaving the village, John found himself at home on a houseboat on Lake Union where he lived until his death. We extend our condolences to his family.

James R, Moorehead, III, age 89, passed away peacefully June 8th, at nearby Covenant Shores Retirement Center, due to cancer. Jim, his wife, Mikki, and son, Kelly, lived in Beaux Arts Village for about 35 years, on S.E. 27th St, immediately east of the tennis court. During that time Jim was an engineer working on design for many of the aircraft and projects of Boeing. He participated in tennis, boating, and duplicate bridge, and served as Mayor of Beaux Arts, for most of two terms until he moved to Bellevue. He designed and manufactured the present attractive concrete sign in the garden spot near C dock, originally framed from the piling of the dock for the ferry which served B. A. V. for many years. After retirement Jim served as volunteer with Fred Hutchinson Cancer Center. Both Mikki and Kelly predeceased Jim.

FIREWORKS PROHIBITED: With the Fourth of July upon us, Villagers are reminded that fireworks are prohibited in Beaux Arts, as well as most of the communities in the Greater Seattle area. Our urban forest makes us particularly vulnerable to fire – please help protect life and property by obeying this important law.

WELCOME TO NEW VILLAGERS: You may have met a number of new Villagers since the beginning of the year! Please welcome the following new residents:

- Jeff and Marji Jochums purchased the Peterson home at 10405 SE 28th Street.
- Tim and Paige McGrath purchased the Boom home at 10706 SE 29th Street.
- Bill and Amy Reller purchased the Schlitt home at 10521 SE 29th Street.
- Jeff Crollard is renting the Peterson house at 2730 – 107th Ave SE.
- Gary and Melissa Fulton purchased the Billera home at 2811 – 106th Pl SE.
- Amy and Andrea Massisi purchased the Graham home at 10415 SE 29th Street.

COUNCIL BUSINESS: Highlights from the June 13th Council meeting include:

- A visit from King County Councilmember Jane Hague, who met with the Council to discuss regional issues, particularly transportation and the upcoming votes on funding for various projects in the greater Puget Sound.
- Review of a request from the Molbak's to place a concrete parking pad on the right of way adjacent to their property. This request was granted because it does not impact drainage in the vicinity and it will be a benefit to all of the neighbors living in the vicinity.
- A discussion about the new stop sign on SE 29th Street and whether it fully addresses the safety concerns at that intersection. Mayor Wells will be exploring several options for trimming the hedge at the intersection to address safety complaints from residents.

NEXT COUNCIL MEETING: The next regular Council meeting will be held at 7:00 pm on July 11, 2006 at Rick Leider's house.

CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE: The countdown has begun to the 2008 centennial celebration of our village's founding! The Centennial Committee is now accepting new committee members, ideas, stories and photos or memorabilia for the momentous occasion. Why is the village important to you? How do you envision the village for the next 100 years? Start thinking about it for our upcoming essay contest! Also, does anyone remember where the last time capsule was buried? See Angela Kulp for additional information at angelalkulp@yahoo.com, or 425-455-5857.

IVY ATTACK ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

The Youngs and McCorristons are to be congratulated on their recent work removing ivy from their property and the abutting Town Property. Jobs well done!

VILLAGE FLOWER BASKETS: Village flower baskets, which were hung in the later part of May. are looking really beautiful. Again this year, we owe special recognition and thanks to MOLBAK'S, Blair Carleton and Jens Molbak for their most generous donation of the plants, soil, and fertilizer.

It takes lots of volunteer effort to make the flower baskets happen; planning, planting, hanging, and of course months of watering. Many thanks to our Village Basket volunteers: Blair Carleton who selected and delivered the plants, Robin Stefan who organized, and Carol Graham single-handedly planted all the baskets, even after she moved out of the Village, and then Carol and Tom Graham hung all 14 baskets. In addition, for almost five months these "adopt-a-basket" Villagers water, often daily, and make sure the baskets thrive:

Gerri Armbruster	Mary Hickey	Holly Rogge
Ann Boynton	Sue Eulau	Ann-Mari Simonsen
Kathy Bray	Sheila Justus	Al & Donna Smallman
Jeff Elston	Susan Kennedy	Barb Welsh
Ruth Cowan	Del Lewis

Thanks to all who make the Village flower baskets possible!
